THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Our country will be found the message of President Buchanan, as telegraphed to the Cincinnati Gazette, Commercial, Telegraph, and Volksblatt.

EXPLANATION.—We give up so large a portion of our space to the message of the President that we omit the usual amount of news and miscellaneous matter. The message is far the most important reading we could lay before our readers.

DAILY DEMOCRAT TO THE COUNTRY. Now that Congress is in session and every one within the facilities of a daily mail should take a daily paper, we beg leave to remind our readers and the public generally that the Daily Democrat, for the country, is supplied $600 per year or fifty cents per month, payable always in advance.

Let those who would keep themselves posted on the current events of the times, send forward their subscriptions at once.

AS IRREVERENT EMPIRE.—No person with the title of reverend is allowed to enter with the title of reverend.

Henry J. Raymond, of the D. R. and P. R., is writing innumerable letters to Vandy, on section etc. This shows how the two extremes correspond.

When Greeley heard of Lincoln's election, he was so happy he requested that some one would kick him. Although it usually sounds eyebrows for a man to ask who, we of the opinion that Greeley's request should have been granted.

Senator Slidell arrived at Washington a few days since, and says that nothing can prevent a Southern secession movement. Exchange.

If nothing can do it, then Slidell is the man.

There are at present about 60,000 offices in the gift of the General Government, for which we may estimate 600,000 applicants, showing that a little under one thirtieth of the people of the United States are interested not so much in the good of the country as in a change of the Administration. Does not this assist in explaining why a President is never chosen for two terms now a day?

A paragraph is going the rounds of the Black Republican papers that the Georgia Secession Movement is trifling, having a mere carry the market. This ridiculous charge, credited by Northerners, is an indication of their ignorance. They should remember that, in all the wars we have had since the Revolution, that the greater part of the fighting has been done by the South, and that the Southern section is decidedly more military in feeling than the Northern.

BREVITIES.—A Memphis paper considers the removal of a Mr. Gammon to Arkansas an accession to that State, but does not state whether he is back-gammon, oil-gammon or plain gammon.

There is a letter in the Cincinnati post office for A. Well, of Davenport, Ky., detailed for payment of postage.

The members of the Pilat's Association are requested to meet at their hall on tomorrow, Thursday morning, at nine o'clock, to make arrangements for attending the funeral of James T. Brown. A full attendance will be expected.

The white woman who was with Cauton, the slave, prior to his attempt to ravish Catharine Swanson, on Sunday night, has been arrested. Her name is Jeany Swall, and is claimed as Captain's wife. Carter Tillotson arrested her.

The special Grand Jury of the Circuit Court impounded this morning to take cognizance of the charge against the slave David Cauton, recommended a true bill of indictment, charging the accused for an attempt to commit a rape, and his trial will be speedily proceeded with.

The Electors of President and Vice-President met yesterday, December 1st, at the Capitals of their respective States.

S. Thomas, of Elizabethport, and H. W. Crittenden, of Louisville, have leased the Naomoth Cave, N. Y., for a term of years.

Hon. W. Craven, of Indiana, who was recently shot in the arm, has had the ball extracted and is recovering.

Capt. John B. Major, of the "Governor's Guard," has been elected Major of the Kentucky River Battalion.

THE INSURRECTION AT BUCKSBURG.—The intelligence from Burkesville, Cumberland county, of an insurrection in that vicinity, was entirely stripped of importance by later revelations. No one was hung and only one white man, Aaron Herlan, was arrested. The proofs seem conclusive that he was implicated with negroes, and he is held for trial.

CITY COURIER.—Jas. Lightly, drunk and disorderly, was in $100 for his bond, and L. Lyons drunk and disorderly, was in $100 for two months. Jas. M. Moore, a negro drayman, was sentenced to jail for $100 for larceny, killing his master, John C. Clegg, yesterday, killing Jas. T. Brown,构成 passing counterfeit money on J. Long, discharged.

Off the dock.—The following fine were assessed, Richard Asbell and John Brown, each one cent: Samuel Dey $10.

By reference to our columns, it will be found that the Grayside Springs, a favorite place of fashionable resort, are to be sold. Any one desiring to secure a handsome property as a safe investment, will do well to make the purchase. The Springs are high in reputation, and every season do a most excellent business. They are situated in Grayson county, a short distance from the Mammoth Cave, and are visited by almost all of those whose curiosity draws them to see that natural wonder. They are, however, too well known, and too popular to make an extended notice, and we are assured that a good host will take advantage of the opportunity to benefit himself.

AMUSEMENTS.

HAMBURGER, THE WIZARD.—This noted professor of the magic art will give the first of his performances at the Temple Theatre to-night, with a programme including some of the most remarkable and interesting experiments ever seen. Hamburger, introduced by Madame Salzman, the accomplished violinist and pianist, who will lend her valuable assistance to the entertainment. The dwarf Sprightly, is also an attractive feature.

THE CAMEROS.—This really notorious troupe gave their last concert at the Temple last evening, to a large and fashionable audience. They have been remarkably successful in drawing good houses, and dull and uneventful times—a fine compliment to their general excellence as performers of the solo opera. They go hence to Cincinnati, we believe.

COAL, HOOT, SHOES AND SCAFFOLD.—Coal, hot, shoes and scaffolding, a late arrival— Gay's China Palace, corner of Fourth and Green.

VILLAIN BEAT GREELEY'S CAP.—W. H. Williams beat Gay's cap I contend with.

We oppose the cockade, but we do not swear to the Charleston ladies who have got up a secession bonnet. The latest fashion is thus described:

The bonnet is composed of white and black Georgia cotton, covered with a network of black cotton, and streamers ornamented with small trees and flowers, embroidered in gold thread, while the feathers are formed of black and white worsted.

THE VERMONT LEGISLATURE has decided to pass the personal liberty bills. It is a noticeable fact that a law prohibiting the re-education of fugitives who have invaded the country, has come into the Union, and it was repealed in order to secure to the benefits of the Union Vermont, and all the Republican States, that passed the personal liberty bills ought to be kicked out of the Confederacy. It is not the duty of the South to decide, or in a plain word, run now, but to stand. The South is in the Union, and has right on her side.

Everything now is dismal, the air is saturated with H. W. Woodruff, it is in your visage; find it in your beverages. It lies down with you at night, wakes you at daylight, as if all the dead language had risen with ghostly ripples to shatter, baffle, and sweep destruction. It haunts you in your dreams, it haunts your children, and steals away the innocence of the young. All other subjects, good bad and indifferent, are submerged. The lover and sweetheart, under the moon, no longer discuss the long delights of a quiet life, but whisper—God save the confederacy!—of dis-union. We are opposed to all this; we are sick of it; the rich die pale upon our epitaphs. What difference will it make a few years hence, if South Carolina does leave the Union? It will make no more than it will to you to-morrow. If you pierce your finger nails to day. But we do not intend to talk politics or discuss. We intend to protest, ineffectually, of course, against the continued talk about it. Not but what it may be all right and proper, but, oh! the weary, weary day, to read over and over every hour, and to find in itself every waste of life. We are bored, terribly bored. So many reiterations day after day, the same platitudes. We long for fresh air. We want some one to interest us in something else. We know this is difficult—that we, too, have the fever; but we want a physician to cure us and the country.

Fine decorated china toilet sets, at Gay's China Palace.

THEATRE.—The large and elegant assembly at the theater last evening was but the repetition of a slightly complimentary to the Florentine. In the Griswold Lane last evening they those in their best, and never more dressed the plants they received.

Tonight Mrs. Florence takes a beauty appearing as Susan Nippur, with Mr. Phoenix as Captain Cuttle, in the drama of Dobson & Son. The afterpiece is the Young Actress, and the rest for both plays.

We remind our readers (especially grocery dealers) that Mr. C. G. Spencer sells at auction this morning, on four months credit, the entire grocery stock of Moore, Wheeler & Robinson, two doors above the Bank of Kentucky, Main street. We advise grocery buyers to attend the sale.

COAST MARTIAL.—The case of the postilion of Major W. H. Woodruff, for a suit of proportionality, vs. the State Guard, was not concluded yesterday, but will be submitted today, Capt. Reesman making the closing speech.

The Homeric—The case of Captain Lockley, who killed James T. Brown on Tuesday evening, was before Judge Johnson yesterday, and was continued till today. You bought an "Ercard" piano yet?

Everything new, at Gay's China Palace, corner of Fourth and Green.

ated below are hereby informed that ordinances have been passed by the General Assembly, and are in force, requiring the repair and covering of the sidewalks in front of their respective lots, and if they fail to have the same properly done within thirty days from the date hereof, the owner will be liable to a fine of $100, to be levied upon the property, and the same will be recovered by the city engineer, and paid into the treasury of the city.
